REGINALD W. SNOWDEN, SR., being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

By Mr. Bowers:

Q Will you please state your name, age, residence and occupation?

A My name is Reginald W. Snowden, Sr.; I am 62 years of age and reside at New Market, Maryland. I usually work as a laborer at Ebert's and various places in Frederick County.

Q We are taking testimony concerning a parcel of land in the town of New Market, Frederick County, Maryland, known as Lots Numbered 109, 110, 111 and 112. I show you a certified copy of deed from M. Adelaide Oram, widow, and others, to Sarah Lee, for life and then to William C. Lee, which is the same man as William O. Lee, and Florence Snowden, dated March 27, 1940 and recorded in Liber 423, folio 347, and ask you if you know about that deed?

A Yes, I do.

Q Mr. Snowden, you are a brother-in-law to William O. Lee, who is sometimes known as William C. Lee, and your late wife, Florence, was a sister to William O. Lee, is that right?

A That's right.

Q Now who are the heirs of your late wife, Florence Snowden?

A Well, I was her husband. She was the mother of seven children.

Q And are all of those children adults?

A All except the last one, who is Reginald W. Snowden, Jr.

Q You and William O. Lee have been here in this office talking about this estate several times lately, have you not?

A Yes, that's right.

Q We have explained to you the testimony of William C. Lee and so far as you know this testimony of William O. Lee is true?

A To the best of my knowledge. He knows the family relations
